Call for Women Artists

The 2009 Athena Business Women's Awards are presented by Missman-Stanley & Associates P.C.

About the Athena Business Women's Awards:

Created by the Illinois Quad City Chamber of Commerce and The Women's Connection, the Athena Business Women's Awards were established in 2006 to honor women who have made outstanding contributions to the Quad City business community. Nomination forms for 2009 award winners are now available and the deadline for nominations is January 23, 2009.

Honoring Regional Female Artist:

The Athena Business Women's Awards Committee will hold a contest for regional female artists to design and produce the actual awards, each one a work of art, to be presented to this year's Athena recipients.

Call For Entries: Deadline for submissions is January 5, 2009.

Award for selected artist: Selected artist will receive a $500 award plus $100 for each award produced (plan on producing 3-5 awards). Artist will be recognized at event and in all press releases.

Artist Eligibility: Open to all female artists living within a 60 mile radius of the Quad Cities metro area.
